

CHAIRWOMAN MARIE GILCHRIST AND FERN HAGER
Preparing cake for the 10th anniversary

A family affair

A martial arts demonstration, Ikebana flower arranging, Sumi-e brush painting, and the traditional Coal Miner's Dance were among the highlights of the recent 10th anniversary celebration of the Berkeley-Sakai Sister City organization.

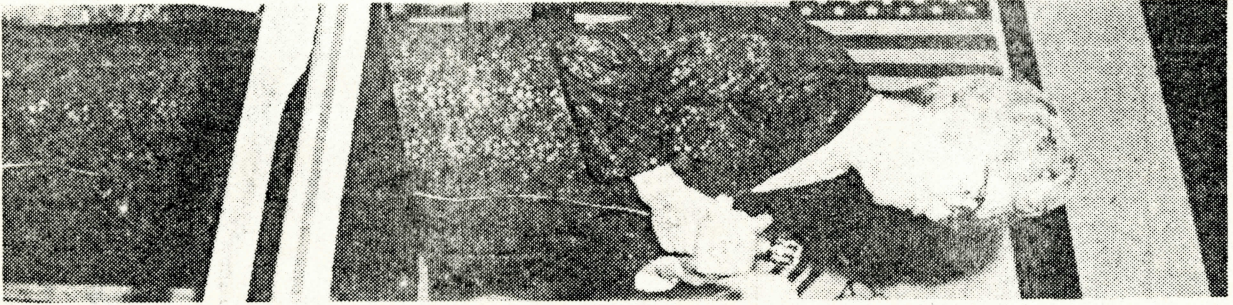

New board members and officers for the coming year also were elected at the dinner and program held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koch.

New chairwoman of the association is Marie Gilchrist. Other officers are Roger Bales, vice chairman; Fumi Nakamura, recording secretary; Barbara Takahashi corresponding secretary; Henry Garber, treasurer; Marilyn Fulrath, publicity; Kim Koch, Alumni Club chairman.

Directors elected were Claudia Bugatto, Tad Hirota, Marie Mitchell, Gus Moore, Asao Sakaki, Rich Sherman, Gretchen Wulfinf and Frank Yamasaki.

The Honorary Chairman is Shigeru Jio. Honorary board members are Mayor Warren Widener, Eugenie Bugatto, Fern Harger and Tess Koch. Noboru Masuda, Izumi Yasui and Katsumi Murakami, all visitors from Sakai, participated in the program

HARUKO OBATA
Ikebana teacher

SHIGERU JIO BRUSH PAINTING
association's founding father